Aspanese Ball at Goshen.

Miss Mary Rafferty, of Washington, was the hostess of the Japanese ball, which has never been surpassed in beauty and brilliant execution in anything given at the Alleghany Inn this season. The scene would have done credit to the Mikado's domain. All the Japanese appointments were carried out, lanterns, umbrelias, the flowers peculiar to that realm, hanging wistaria, cherry blossoms and many others, suspended by evergreen from a brightly illumined ceiling, and the music furnished by the band was in keeping with the scene.

The guests dressed in gorgeous Japanese costumes, marched into the ball-room. During the dance punch was served, and at its close the main din-state.

the fourth and last period of the conferences of the summer assembly of the Southern Preselvation Church the Southern Presbyterian Church, Montreat, that the program committee of which Rev. Walter L. Lingle, D. D. f Richmond, is chairman, met with the first disappointment of the season in the inability of speakers to take their places on the program. It had been expected that Rev. R. E. Vinson, D. D., LL. D., a member of the faculty of the Theological Seminary at Austin, Tex., would conduct the Bible study each day during this period of the assembly, and that Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, at Stamford, Conn., would deliver each day at 11 o'clock one lecture in a series on the general theme, "Developing a Witnessing Church." A message was received from Dr. Vinson announcing that pessonal illness would render it impossible for him to come to Montreat at this time and the critical illness of the father of Dr. Johnston made it necessary for him to cancel his engagement on the program this year. And with the catalogue you will be given seven certificates, which are redeemable free for the first thirty-five pictures.

The catalogue costs 35 cents, or 40 cents by mail.

The contest rules permit you to make as many as ten answers to each picture, so The Times-Dispatch devised a book which enables you to make ten answers to each picture. If you wish, and yet need only ONE COPY of each picture.

This book is called the Answer Book. It contains seventy-seven double pages. On the top sections of the seventy-seven pages you paste one copy each of the seventy-seven pictures, and beneath where each picture.

If you do not have an Answer Book you are required by the rules to submit each answer you make on a separate picture and coupon.

The Answer Book is explained in today's contest announcement, the price is given there. The price is no more than that of purchasing thirty-five or forty extra pictures at the regular price of the paper per copy. Yet with an Answer Book you can make a total of 770 answers, while requiring only one copy of each picture.

You are without doubt now a subscriber to the paper, and, of course, you will want to keep on taking it. So the price of 75 cents for the Answer Book is no hardship.

Now turn to to-day's picture and see if you can tell what book title it was drawn to represent. You could tell if you kad a catalogue,

Remarkable Christmas

Present Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a friend of the prominent sentlemen recursted the inent gentleman requested the Burrelle Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to watch every paper in America and to watch every paper in America and to take up every item hich appeared concerning the man.

The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the his-instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this especial man.

The history ends just after election, and the 20,642 newspaper items found include everything, from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mountained. ed on 3,200 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

At the head of each item is the name

At the head of each item is the name and date of paper clipped from, this information having been put in with a book typewriter. The words thus inserted amount to 153,252.

In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people as readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Burrelle Bureau, for the extent to which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

There are many people in private as remarkable.

There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man Burrelle, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed "Burrelle, New York," will reach him with no delay. (Advertisement.)
